April 14, 2022 Maundy Thursday Holy Communion

A LITURGY FOR MAUNDY THURSDAY

The name ‘Maundy’ comes from the Latin for ‘new commandment’, which Jesus, according to the gospel of John, gave his disciples at the ‘Last Supper’

Maundy Thursday marks the beginning of what is called the Great Three Days, Good Friday, Holy Saturday and Easter Sunday. This holy time of the year contains different focuses, but it is seen as a continuous time of prayer and worship.

The New Testament reading invites us to hear again the beginning of the Lord’s Supper. The setting of this worship service reminds us of the nearness of the betrayal and approaching passion of Jesus.

Please keep silence as you leave worship.

PRELUDE

Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us

Robert Powell

WELCOME

- P Blessed be the holy Trinity, + one God who forgives all our sin, whose mercy endures forever.
- C Amen.
- P The Lord be with you.
- C And also with you.
- P Tonight we begin the Great Three Days of our Lord's passion, death and resurrection, the journey from the supper table to the cross, from the cross to Easter dawn.
- C We are followers in his way, welcoming his truth, encountering his life.
- P This is the night when Christ, the Lamb of God, gave himself into the hands of those who would betray him.
- C This is the night when Christ gathers with his followers in the upper room.
- P This night as we break bread and drink the cup we proclaim God's love for all and come again to God's table.
- C This night Christ took a towel and washed the disciples' feet, showing us how to both honor and serve others in love.
- P This night is for watching and prayer.
- C May we give ourselves to Christ, dying with him to all that takes life, so that we may be raised by him to live in relationship with the One who gives life to all.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P Let us together pray.

C Holy God, source of all love, on the night of his betrayal, Jesus gave us a new commandment, to love one another as he loves us. Write this commandment in our hearts, and give us the will to serve others as he was the servant of all, your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

FIRST READING: Exodus 12:1-4 [5-10] 11-14

Israel remembered its deliverance from slavery in Egypt by celebrating the festival of Passover. This festival featured the Passover lamb, whose blood was used as a sign to protect God's people from the threat of death. The early church described the Lord's supper using imagery from the Passover, especially in portraying Jesus as the lamb who delivers God's people from sin and death.

¹The Lord said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: ²This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. ³Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. ⁴If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. [⁵Your lamb shall be without blemish, a year-old male; you may take it from the sheep or from the goats. ⁶You shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; then the whole assembled congregation of Israel shall slaughter it at twilight. ⁷They shall take some of the blood and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it. ⁸They shall eat the lamb that same night; they shall eat it roasted over the fire with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. ⁹Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted over the fire, with its head, legs, and inner organs. ¹⁰You shall let none of it remain until the morning; anything that remains until the morning you shall burn.] ¹¹This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the Lord. ¹²For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the Lord. ¹³The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt.

¹⁴This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the Lord; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

L The word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

and listened to my | supplication,

²for the LORD has given | ear to me

¹⁷I will offer you the sacrifice | of thanksgiving

¹⁸I will fulfill my vows | to the LORD
in the presence of | all God's people,

¹⁹in the courts of | the LORD's house,

SECOND READING: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

In the bread and cup of the Lord's supper, we experience intimate fellowship with Christ and with one another, because it involves his body given for us and the new covenant in his blood. Faithful participation in this meal is a living proclamation of Christ's death until he comes in the future.

²³For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night when he was betrayed took a loaf of bread, ²⁴and when he had given thanks, he broke it and said, "This is my body that is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." ²⁵In the same way he took the cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me." ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

GOSPEL: John 13:1-7, 31b-35

The story of the last supper in John's gospel recalls a remarkable event not mentioned elsewhere; Jesus performs the duty of a slave, washing the feet of his disciples, and urging them to do the same for others.

P The holy gospel according to John.

C Glory to you, O Lord.

¹Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. ²The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper ³Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, ⁴got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. ⁵Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. ⁶He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" ⁷Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." ⁸Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." ⁹Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" ¹⁰Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." ¹¹For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."

¹²After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?" ¹³You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. ¹⁴So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. ¹⁵For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. ¹⁶Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. ¹⁷If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them."

^{31b}"Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. ³²If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. ³³Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' ³⁴I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. ³⁵By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

P The gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to you, O Christ.

SERMON

Pastor Darryl Thompson Powell

P Dear friends in Christ, the Lord Jesus suffered for us, leaving us an example that we might follow in his steps. In his incarnation he took our human flesh and lived among us for a time. He came not to be served but to serve, and to give up his life for us. Christ died for us, once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, in whose image we have been created.

In Baptism we have died in the flesh and been made alive in the Spirit. We have been buried with Christ, that we might share in his resurrection.

As we celebrate the mystery of our Lord's death and resurrection, let us come before God in penitence, praying that God's image in us may be restored, and that we may be renewed in the power of the Holy Spirit.

I ask you, therefore: Do you place your faith in God, who created the world, and in whose image you are made?

C We do.

P Do you place your hope in Jesus Christ, who died for you and was raised from the dead?

C We do.

P Do you place your trust in God's Holy Spirit, who empowers and directs your life in accordance with God's will?

C We do.

P Do you repent of the sin which has separated you from God, and marred God's image in you?

C We repent.

P Do you accept again the cleansing from the power of sin, which you first received in your Baptism?

C We do.

P Will you model your life on the example of your Lord, Jesus Christ?

C With the help of God, we will.

P Will you take up your cross, and follow Christ?

C With the help of God, we will.

P Will you seek to serve God and God's people, and not only to be served?

C We will, after the example of Christ.

P Will you recognise in others the image of God in which you and they are made?

C We will, after the example of Christ.

P Will you be faithful in worship, in reading holy Scripture, and in prayer?

C We will, by the grace of God's Holy Spirit.

P Will you use your gifts in the service of Christ's Body, the Church?

C We will, by the grace of God's Holy Spirit.

P You have been baptised into the death of Christ, and called to a life of humble and loving service to God and to others. All have sinned, and fallen short of God's will for us. You have turned to God in penitence and faith, and promised to follow in the way of the cross.

Remember this baptismal water as a sign of forgiveness of your sin, restoration of God's image in you, and of the renewing and restoring power of God's Holy Spirit.
